

FLIGHT FOR ALLYSHIP

To provide more awareness and representation, Left Bank Brasserie will be partnering with Diversity in Wine and Spirits to highlight under-represented winemakers. 15% of all proceeds from the sale of these wines will provide scholarships and grants to create a more diverse and inclusive wine and restaurant industry. These wines will rotate so look out for who we're representing next!

MAISON NOIR, OPP, PINOT NOIR, WILLAMETTE VALLEY, OR 2018

Andre Mack left his successful career in Investment Services to pursue his true passion, wine. After holding the prestigious position of Head Sommelier for Chef Thomas Keller's Per Se in New York, he decided to pursue winemaking. He fell in love with Oregon and well, the rest is history....

LONGEVITY WINES, CABERNET SAUVIGNON, LODI, CA 2017

Like many producers, Phil Long began his winemaking journey in his garage. On top of personally sourcing all of the fruit, he believes in constantly re-evaluating and improving his processes to not only continue to grow as a winemaker but to provide the best wines possible to you.

BROWN ESTATE, CHAOS THEORY, NAPA VALLEY, CA 2018

This wine making family is the first and only black owned and operated estate winery in Napa Valley. Based out of the Chiles Valley AVA, they focus on growing some of the best Zinfandel in all of Napa. Chaos Theory began as a one-off Cab/Zin blend but has continued on as a "shape-shifter" whose blend changes every year.
